Dear Bruce,

I am writing on behalf of my gratitude for your unending guidance through-out the past 5 years of my career. You have been instrumental in the personal growth of my business career and an integral part of Sandwire's success.

Your connections to a diverse community of businesses have not only been helpful in Sandwire attaining new business but it has also added to my list of business associates and friends. Your network of colleagues seems to never end and I appreciate the camaraderie among your business network to "pay forward" the recommendations of businesses.

Looking forward to the next five years of our mutually successful business and friendship.

Sincerely,
